Our school and families partner together to encourage an appreciation for our diverse world. ### Support Graduating Seniors in their Faith

Studies show that over 80% of Catholic students disengage from their faith during these years. To address this, the Diocese has partnered with Newman Connection, a national nonprofit that connects graduating seniors with Catholic campus ministries—even at non-Catholic colleges and military bases. This ensures students have immediate access to the Sacraments and a Catholic community upon arrival. Participation is free and easy. Families, visit: [Newman Connection High School Outreach](http://Newman Connection High School Outreach). Students register, Newman Connection notifies the appropriate campus minister, and then the campus minister will reach out to the student.

John Patrick Publishing Company prints our weekly bulletin. To place ads on the back of our bulletin, contact Karen Donehower at 484-363-9475.

Podcast for Catholic Parents - New Episode

The Allentown Diocese Office of Education has started the "Ready, Willing, & Able" podcast for Catholic parents.

The newest episode is entitled "How to be Holy, Even if You Aren't a Monk." Genevieve O'Connor, M.T.S., M.F.A meets with Maggie Riggins, Executive Director of Evangelization and Formation for the Diocese of Allentown, to talk about how holiness is possible in any state in life. While some people worry that their lifestyle doesn't permit holiness (parents don't have time to spend 6 hours in prayer like a monk might!), Catholic Tradition reveals that EVERYONE is called to holiness.

Riggins offers insight into how this holiness is possible by introducing "Salesian Spirituality." She explains that St. Francis de Sales, through his friendship and correspondence with St. Jane de Chantal, insisted that holiness is possible for all walks of life. Riggins describes a few of St. Francis' key suggestions for how to make our daily lives holy, including the "Direction of Intention," the "Salesian Preparation of the Day", and the "Little Virtues."
